From the President

Where has the time gone? I just talked to Christie Foulk, the Nomination Chair, and she says that the slate for the CCA 2022 elections is going to be out in May. Anyone not nominated who wishes to run for a position on the Board can run by petition.

Once again, I have to thank the membership and the CCA Board for all the help we are getting to support the club. And, I want everyone to know, that the Board members spend a lot of time considering issues and decisions important to the Club. We don't always agree, but everyone is so courteous to each other that we can thoroughly consider an issue and make a decision for the Club. Not all decisions are unanimous, but majority rules and the Constitution and By Laws are our guide and rule book. And, you know, the President doesn't vote except to break a tie, and I haven't had to vote since I became President.

By the way, please feel free to contact any of the board if you have questions or concerns about the Club or related issues.

And, finally, remember to tell the editor if you like anything about the new Chi Chatters. Personally, I think Michele Misurelli-Gillis is doing a wonderful job with it, especially since we have gone from four to six issues each year.

Member Club Reports

The Chihuahua Club of Northern California

Camaraderie is defined as mutual trust and friendship among people who spend a lot of time together. So, what's the reason to be in a dog club if there's a lack of camaraderie among members. This year, CCNC is taking a different approach by pulling together the membership to work as a team, not only at our Specialties, but at all the shows we attend. "Covid" puppies are being introduced to the show world and as a group, we are pitching in to encourage those puppies in the ring. Many of us are pairing up with those pups and going to parks and pet stores or other public areas to acclimate them to sounds and people. In addition to passing the puppies around at meetings, we are having members go over these pups to familiarize them with the table experience. In addition, we are sharing a list of shows that members will attend in order to bulk up the ever-elusive majors. Membership working together is a must for clubs to succeed. CCNC is working to that end.

Sherry L Lebeck
CCNC President

The Chihuahua Club of Oklahoma

The Chihuahua Club of Oklahoma is being revitalized to hold a specialty show on June 17, 2022, in conjunction with the Central Oklahoma Toy Dog Club having two shows on Saturday and one show on Sunday. The shows will be held at the Embassy Suites Hotel and Conference Center in Norman Oklahoma. Sweepstakes judge for the OCC show will be Fr. Bryan P. Timby of Jackson, TN and Regular classes will be Sandra Bingham-Porter of Charleston, IL. Judges for the Central Oklahoma Toy Dog Club will be Dr. John V Ioia of Hurley, NY, Dr. Clyde E Shaw of Dennison, TX and Carol Pyrkosz of Lenoir City, TN. Show closing date is June 1, 2022. Along with the Chihuahua Club and Toy Dog Club shows, several toy clubs will be holding their Nationals that week and there will be a lot of regional shows. An all-toy agility show will be on Sunday and a scent trial is scheduled during the week. Heart and Eye Clinics will also be available on the weekend. With so many events taking place rooms at the hotel are going fast, be sure to book early. Group Code is TOY. Since this is a club that is being revitalized all the help with monetary donations to the trophy fund and prizes for the raffle table are appreciated. Trophy funds can be sent by check to Barbara Jeleski at 9043 E. 29th Street, Tulsa, OK 74129-6803. Raffle items can be sent to Brittany Wangsgard at 10 S 10th ST, Yukon, OK 73099 or Donna Bledsoe at 313 E Schreiber Street, Garland, TX 75040.

Texas Chihuahua Club

Our secretary is still on leave from her duties, so I'm volunteered to do the club's report. We are so thrilled with the entries at our back-to-back specialties in March. We are especially pleased at seeing and meeting exhibitors who had never been to our shows before. And there were a couple who were new to Chihuahuas and new to showing. We hooked them up with handling classes near their home in Houston and made sure they got to meet other exhibitors from their area. We had exhibitors from New Mexico and Arizona as well. They all said they had a good time and would see us next year.

By the way, if any of you have suggestions for judges for two Texas Chihuahua Club specialties, in March 2023, please send them our way. This year's judges were contracted a couple of years ago, I believe.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU...

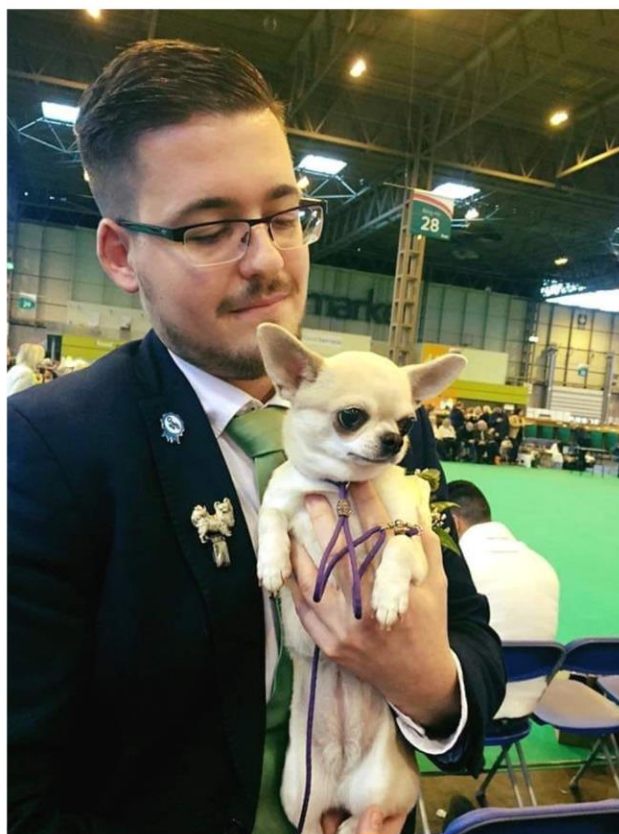

By Joao Machado

Joe Borges -Bellyss Chihuahuas

Joe's background and experience combine a global view of our Sport in multiple breeds as a judge, breeder, and exhibitor. I had the pleasure of meeting Joe in person few years ago while judging a Chihuahua show in Sweden.

His commitment with Chihuahuas is impressive, and I hope you will enjoy what Joe has to share with us about his experience and very interesting ideas. It's my pleasure to share this interview with the Chihuahua fancy in USA.

INTERNATIONAL

When Virgil was about seven months the breeder asked us to join her at the local dog show. Virgil's breeder had two step-daughters the same age as me and they motivated me to train the dog, show him and attend a Junior Handling Competition.

Thus I got involved in a project that changed my life. Preparing and showing my dog was a real challenge for a young teenager. Three months before the first show I was so stressed. I wanted to do well and didn't want anything to go wrong. I visited all the breeder websites, saved photos of dogs, printed them out, and tried to do the same at home with my dog. During this period I dissected all the rare videos that I found of Crufts and Westminster shows and I archived all the documents on the breed that I found in canine magazines and books. The Chihuahua-mania had really set in !

Virgil became a very successful dog, winning Best Of Breed from Junior Classes at his first shows and finishing his career still winning BOB from Veteran Classes. These victories were very emotional and I enjoyed not only making it to the podium as a Junior Handler, but also connecting with my dog for more serious competitions in the breed ring.

Do you actively exhibit and or breed your dogs?

Since 2004 I haven't stop showing my Chihuahuas or those of friends. I had the opportunity to train and prepare some brilliant European dogs and I will be forever grateful for all these experiences and memories. I have been lucky to show dogs who have won classes or been placed at Crufts, along with some World and European Titles.

Officially I have my prefix and I am a breeder but I am not good at it ! I had only five litters in my life. I feel guilty about breeding my females and I hate making decisions about my puppies. Breeding is a perpetual puzzle in my head because I have a passion for the breed's history and for pedigrees and I do not stop considering matings and what they could produce.

What do you enjoy most about our Sport?

For me showing dogs is not about winning. Showing dogs touches a lot of aspects. I like the the process of evolution and preparation of the dog.

Training a dog is not just putting a show lead and doing a triangle. It's a question of creating a real relationship with the dog, and builing a mutual trust each. I teach my Ring-Training's participants to have fun with their dog ! We like to see lively and happy dogs in a ring and shown with respect and connection. How beautiful to see a dog proud and confident to walk at his human's side with a fluid and energetic gait.

Although my activity as a judge is just starting and I still have a lot to learn, I already know I enjoy judging too. Having the opportunity to touch and watch so many specimens is a real plus. The owners give you their confidence by coming for your opinion, after that it is your turn to give your confidence to the dog during his exhibition.

The adult classes are often thrilling but I never disparage the puppies and the veterans. What excitement to discover a young dog full of potential that suggests it can have a great career. And what a privilege to (re-)discover veterans fervently endorsing the attributes of the breed.

What also fascinates me is the history of the breeds and the heritage they carry. In connection with this, I must say that I like travelling ! Discovering new cultures and dog cultures and meeting new and old friends. I have been lucky to show in more than 16 countries and I hope to visit many more.

What is the hardest part of the standard to breed for consistently?

It is difficult to mention one point. The Chihuahua is not an easy breed. By its size, reproduction is not always the most prolific. The breed is not homogeneous in size and type.

The breeder often does not have many choices in a litter and must often base his selection on the « least worst » instead of « the best. » There are certain points which will be totally refuted by any good breeder who respects himself but sometimes we are obliged to overlook certain things and keep them in mind in order to improve them later.

Personally I know that I have to focus on body length. I have kept and used dogs long in body. I will find it a pity to deny them when other important points are there. The most important thing is to know what is wrong, not to obsess over it, but not to be blind either. Other breeders may not understand your choices, but that's not important as long as you understand your own choices.

What do you see as trending in the breed today - good and bad?

I notice a tendency to small eyes, heavy lips and too short muzzles. The typical Chihuahua expression is endangered! The Chihuahua expression is a treasure to be cherished. This goes through the gaze, the shape of the eyes, the proportions in the head, a balanced apple dome, large ears, the muzzle with lean lips and a saucy attitude - all condensed into a dynamic body with a beautiful tail carriage.

A positive point to mention is the general improvement in the presentation of our Chihuahuas. Many exhibitors have understood that Chihuahuas are real dogs who can live like any other dog. They should have social interaction with other breeds and are not only barking machines. I see more and more Chihuahuas in Ring-Training, Agility, Dog Dancing halls having fun with big dogs and more and more Chihuahuas rivaling the most beautiful ones on the international podiums.

What has been the most significant change in our sport since you got your first dog? Knowing what you know now, would you do this all over again?

The social side has changed a lot. At my first shows we had no forums, no social media. The only way to discover the new imports, exports, breeders' hopefuls was at the dog show in the ring and leafing through the catalog. Now we almost know who will be there. Afterwards, I don't want to criticize social networks because they have also made it possible to open doors and create beautiful friendships and connections.

For the little story, in 2006, I participated in this emancipation of the breed on the internet by creating, with a group of friends, the largest French-speaking forum of the breed. We had around 15.000 members registered on the Forum (private owners, breeders, vets, boutiques, etc.) Meetings were organized in towns and at dog shows. Exhibitors hung up their show numbers and forum badges on their jackets. Some toys were out of stock in stores following the success of some forum posts. A pretty crazy time when I think about it! Of course I would do it all again! We are all crazy but how lucky to be crazy and to have such a passion ! I have plenty of friends who live without dogs and my god their lives are bland!

What can you tell us about yourself that we wouldn't already know?

I can tell you I am involved in a secret project at the moment I am answering these questions ! I hope that by the time you read this article the project will be well under way. Let's end this suspense and tell you few lines about it !

In December 2021, with a group of friends we founded the International Chihuahua Club ! The ICC goal is to unite all Chihuahuas Clubs around the world, to create a real connection between countries, to exchange and support the breed together. Every year a Delegates' Meeting will be organized, in conjunction with a Congress/Seminar, a Dinner and an « ICC-Show ». This show will become for sure an unmissable event bringing together Chihuahuas from all over the world.

I cross my fingers that the website is online and invite you to visit: www-icc-chihuaha.com

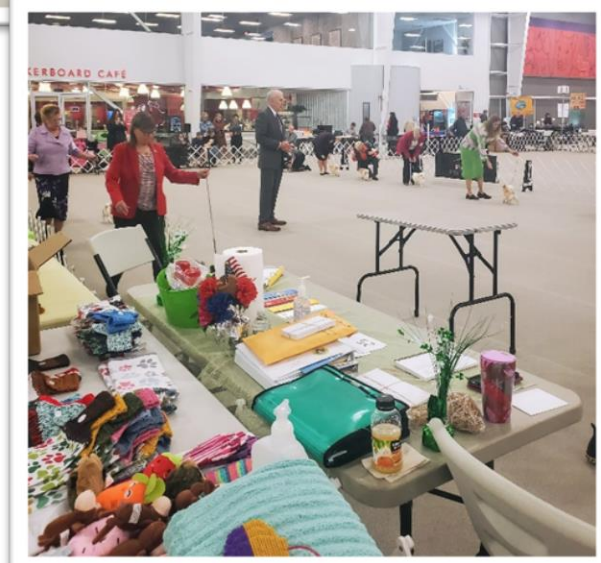

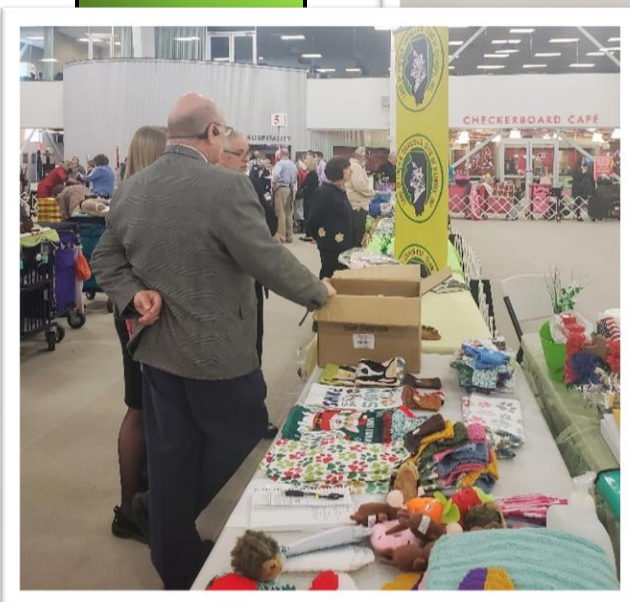

We hope to be able to count on the support of the Chihuahua Club of America, Chihuahua lovers in America as well as all other clubs around the world and all enthusiasts of the breed.

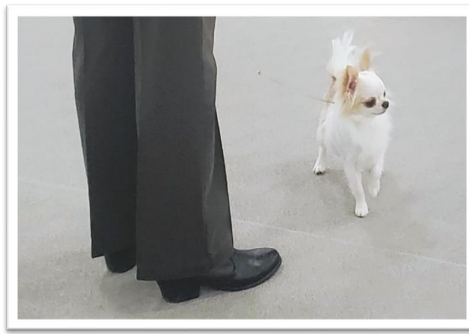

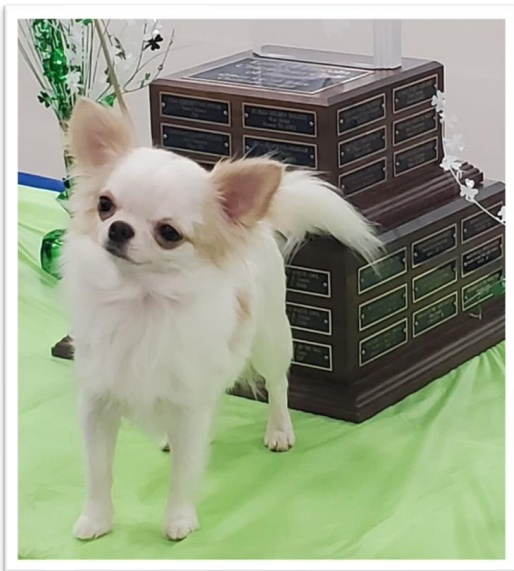

I would like to thank you for reading me ! English is not my mother tongue, I hope my words have been understood in the correct way. Best regards from Switzerland,

04/09/19?? – 04/04/2022

Veta Rose Vanderpool, of Lebanon, died Monday, Apr. 4, 2022, at her home surrounded by family.

Veta was born in Indianapolis, a daughter of the late Arthur and Marian (Forey) Bauman. She married Marion Luther Vanderpool on Apr. 27, 1968. He survives.

Veta enjoyed traveling and camping in their motor home from coast to coast, showing their dogs. She was a member of the American Kennel club, raising and showing Chihuahuas. In 1998 she won at the Westminster Kennel Club show with her long haired chihuahua. She also enjoyed attending her grandkids' sporting events.

Survivors include her loving husband of 54 years, Marion; sons, Richard Butcher of Lebanon and Michael (Lisa) Vanderpool of Lebanon; daughters, Sandy K. Hobson of Lebanon and Sally Barton (David Herrmann) of Lebanon; brother, Arthur "Sonny" (Nancy) Bauman of Greencastle; grandchildren, Taylor (Jason) Smith-Vanderpool of Kokomo, Dustin (Ashley) Barton of Danville, Matthew (Jessie) Barton of Zionsville, Tyler (Katie) Barton of AZ, Kim (Marc) Richwine of Lebanon, Stephanie (Ed) Kortman of Mechanicsburg, Joshua (Maree) Hobson of Thorntown, Lisa Butcher, Danny Butcher, Crissy Cole, Richard Butcher, Shawna (Brandon) Leier; and 17 great grandchildren.

Veta was preceded in death by sister, Gloria Partlow; great granddaughter, Carlie Kortman; and son-in-law, Michael Hobson.

Memorial contributions in her memory may be made to Parkinson Association or a charity of the donor's choice. You are invited to visit the website where you may sign her online register and leave a personal message at www.strawmyerdrury.com.

Tribute to Veta Vanderpool

When we first met Veta, Vanderpool Chihuahuas were already well known, and they'd had several top producers in the breed. Mom was a stay-at-home mom, Dad was a teacher, and they didn't have a lot of money to spend on a "hobby." We started out in the dog show world in Collies, but Mom fell in love with a long coat at a show and they fit into city living. No one would sell her anything that was breeding stock or show. Veta was the first person willing to take a chance on a "newbie," and over the years, she and Luke became more than just mentors.... they became great friends. I will always cherish the memories of visiting with them at shows, travelling to their house to see new babies, having them down to see ours, and sitting around the campfire after the shows with other chi friends planning future breedings for the 6-week-old puppies we were so excited about.

I always admired how they made the Chihuahuas a family project. It wasn't just Luke and Veta at the shows; their daughter Sally and their son Michael were part of it too, even after they had families of their own. We'd always get a kick out of Veta sending Luke into the ring with the dogs that weren't especially happy about being on the end of that lead, and the devilish grin she often wore when admitting to it. And after we were all back in our "comfy clothes," watching them browse thru the vendors or observe other rings, they were constantly hand in hand and nearly attached at the shoulder. With all the winning she'd already done, she was always excited and grateful for each additional one, and just as happy for us when we would win too, whether it was one of her dogs we beat to do it. She was the epitome of kindness and good sportsmanship, and always willing to help anyone who needed it. She was strong and resilient, patient and warm, and beautiful both inside and out. It was our honor and our pleasure to have been her friends, and she will be truly missed by all who knew her.

Annalisa Waldkoetter, Windsong Chihuahuas

Editor's Note: While I never knew Veta personally, the Vanderpool dogs are in my pedigrees, and I will be forever thankful to Veta for the beautiful dogs I have because of her. My heart goes out to her family.

The Juniors Journal

Donna Bledsoe, Chair CCA Juniors Committee

Since the age of 6, Bryant Janetzke has had a passion for animals. A natural talent for showing dairy goats, rabbits, cavy, meat goats, feeder calves, and sheep led Bryant at the age of twelve to a pathway of showing dogs within the world of the American Kennel Club. He was looking for a new challenge and way to set new goals.

He began in the novice ring showing his Pembroke Welsh Corgi, Knight, who he purchased with his own money. With the experience showing other animals, Bryant jumped right into the ring. Knight led him to several first-place finishes and two Reserve Best Junior Handler awards. As Bryant grew, his interests in showing dogs grew as well.

He regularly attends the Obedience Training Club of Greater Lansing, where he has met new people and practiced conformation and obedience with his dogs. While training, he met a club member who has now become a family friend. While Bryant was training his Dobermans, it was hard not to notice the small ball of white fluff prancing around the ring at class. Bryant is always up for something new, so that is when Kimberly Bling offered Bryant a chance to practice with her female chihuahua puppy, Diva. Who knew that the then five-month-old puppy that he practiced with would become his teammate in the ring each weekend.

For the past year, Bryant has traveled the country with Della (Doberman) and Diva (Long Coat Chihuahua), side by side. You might often see him walking Della and carrying Diva proudly in her doggy backpack travel bag on his back (or perched on his arm like a parrot). Even the two dogs have a special relationship, just like Bryant has with the dogs that he shows. They have led him currently into the #13

An AMERICAN KENNEL CLUB Program

overall junior with Canine Chronicle, #1 Working Junior, and #1 Doberman Junior.

Bryant Janetzke is a goal setter. In 4 H he always sets goals to win Sweepstakes, his favorite event, which he has won each time. When he started showing dogs with a goal in mind. He wanted to earn a spot to the AKC Nationals in Orlando, Florida by earning 5- first places. Meeting this goal in 2020, 2021, and 2022, left Bryant with his ultimate dream; to qualify for the Westminster Kennel Club dog show in New York, by earning seven Best Junior awards. Della and Diva have helped him qualify for the 2022 WKC Junior Showmanship competition and they are well on their way to qualify for 2023. Bryant sets goals in the classroom as well. He is a sophomore at Ionia Public Schools. Bryant is commended for holding a 4.0 cumulative GPA, all while staying busy studying, training, and showing.

Aside from Junior Showmanship, Bryant wanted to spend more time in the breed ring. Kimberly Bling saw a special connection between Bryant and Diva. Diva wanted to show for Bryant. The look she gives Bryant when he places her into a free stack and she begins to sway her tail back and forth, says it all! Priceless. Kim loves to see kids shine in the ring. With new goals set, of achieving National Owner Handler Series rankings, the team began to hit shows hard. In less than a year Diva has earned her Championship, Grand Championship, and National Owner Handler Series Lifetime Bronze. Diva is currently the #1 Long Coat Chihuahua within the AKC NOHS rankings. Most recently Bryant and Diva brought home two Best Junior awards, a Best of Variety Long Coat Chihuahua, Best of Variety Owner Handler, Group 1 Toy Owner Handler, and a Reserve Best in Show Owner Handler from Purina Farms in Gray Summit, MO which has shown this team how hard work and dedication makes dreams come true.

He has made connections mentoring with those in his local Youth Dog club, Working Paws. 4H provides him with other community service opportunities, of which he has been recognized doing so through the Michigan 4 H State award in Companion Animal Science and the 4 H Key Club award. He is always encouraging others to get involved. What truly brings Bryant back into the ring each weekend are the connections that he makes with the people and animals around him. Win or lose, they remain by each other's side for support in and out of the ring. The most valuable lessons aren't taught, they're experienced.

Bryant would like to send a special thank you to Andria Carpenter, Kimberly Bling, Colleen Cramer, Deb King, Denise Hawkins, and Espada for making these show teams possible and always looking their best! -Written & submitted by Jenny Janetzke

The dog fancy does not do this. We select for the traits we can assess, with no worry about protecting the genes for the traits we can't. In short, we do not breed in a way that will prevent the gene pool from changing over time. In fact, we apply strong selection for those evident traits by breeding the individuals we deem the "best", and remove the other animals from the gene pool. Consequently, the composition of the gene pool is different in every generation, even if the dogs look physically the same. That is what we are referring to when we talk about loss of genetic diversity. Furthermore, not only the composition of the gene pool changes, but the expression of those genes changes because breeding to related animals produces inbreeding, which is an increase in homozygosity. There are always mutations hanging out harmlessly in the genome of every animal, so producing homozygosity is going to result in changes in characteristics. And indeed, this is the endless battle of

Sometimes it's something obvious, but mostly these broken things create tiny little problems that escape immediate attention but accumulate over time until we have a real issue. This is not rocket science. A grade school child should be able to understand that if you remove all the red M&Ms from the bowl, you will not be able to eat any red M&Ms.

Okay, so dog breeders have not been protecting the gene pools of their breeds, and we have the problems to show for it. (A point of history: this is a legacy of a culture at the time of breed formation that prioritized "purity" over preservation of gene pools, although to be fair this was long before we understood the genetic basis of inheritance.) If the loss of genes every generation result in changes in function or health, what sense does it make to do more of what caused the problem in the first place? We remove dogs from breeding that don't have the traits the breeder, who is breeding only the "best" animals, yet producing animals that are flawed in some way. We understand why this happens.

To keep the dogs the same, both for things we can see and things we can't like health, we need to prevent changes in the genes. In the dog fancy, this is the elephant in the room. We. Do. Not. Do. This.

The gene pool of every dog breed is changing every generation because we breed only a small fraction of the animals produced by the previous generation. Because genes cannot be added to the gene pool (this is the closed stud book), the gene pool will lose genes that are not replaced. If we believe in genetics (and we do!), every gene has some job it's there to do, and if we remove that gene, we should expect that something will be broken.

or function that we want. We think we're "getting rid of a problem." But the problem is the loss of the diversity of genes that are critical to the function of complex physiology, behavior, and biochemistry. We created our problems by not protecting the gene pool of a breed, and we are trying to return the breed to health by changing the gene pool even more, and in ways that we have no way to know.

Ask our grade school child how we fix this. If the red M&Ms somehow made all the other M&Ms taste better in some invisible way, and the remaining M&Ms just aren't as good without the red ones in the mix, the only way we will get that great taste back is by replacing the red M&Ms that were lost. Now, they will come from a different bag than the original ones. But they're exactly the same. Put those in the bowl and we can recover what we started

by Joyce Gutshall

Types of AKC Agility Competitions

The first AKC sanctioned agility trial was held in 1994. At that time there were just two events: Standard and Jumpers with Weaves. A standard course contains all of the contact obstacles: table, teeter, a-frame, and dog walk as well as weaves, tire jump, and numerous tunnels and jumps. The Jumpers with Weaves course contains jumps, weaves, and tunnels, but no contact obstacles. It is commonly abbreviated as JWW.

In 2007 AKC introduced a new class called FAST which stands for fifteen and send time. This class has 15 obstacles with points assigned to each and a Send Bonus. It is impossible to accumulate the required points in the allotted time without completing the Send Bonus. In order to be successful in FAST your chihuahua must be taught to work at a distance from you.

In 2011 Time2Beat was added as a second game class. A time to beat course consists of 18-20 obstacles with just 2 contacts the A-frame and the teeter. To earn a T2B title, your chihuahua must have 15 qualifying runs and 100 points. For each jump height, for chihuahuas this is generally 4" or 8" the dog who runs the course in the fastest time will earn 10 points. The other dogs competing at that jump height will earn something less than 10 points, according to a scale of percentages based on the fastest time.

In 2015 AKC added Premier Courses. Both Standard and JWW Premier courses are advanced courses incorporating a number of elements that challenge chihuahuas and their handlers in ways that are not seen in traditional AKC courses. These elements include sequences like threadles, back-side jumps, pull-throughs, layering, challenging weave pole entries, and longer running passes. Just as the name suggests Premier Courses only the best Chihuahuas and handlers will be successful in and enjoy competing in Premier.

In 2017 a beginner AKC agility option called ACT or Agility Test Course was added. There are two levels and these are a great place to begin your agility journey or something to do just for fun.

ACT1 • Run a course at any jump height, 10-12 obstacles • A-Frame(5'), Table, Jumps, Open tunnels • Complete the course in 60 seconds, no missed contacts, no dropped bars,

no obstacle attempted more than 3 times, no more than 3 wrong courses • 2 qualifying scores

ACT2 • Run a course at any height, 11-13 obstacles • A-Frame(5'), Teeter, Dog Walk(allowed), Tire, Table, Jumps, Spread jumps (1), Weave Poles (6), Open tunnels • Complete the course in 70 seconds, no missed contacts, no dropped bars, no obstacle attempted more than 3 times, no more than 3 wrong courses • 2 qualifying scores

In 2021 ACT Jumpers courses were added. These are entry level Jumpers courses (no A-frame, Dogwalk, Teeter or Table on courses). ACT 1J are designed for the beginning dog to show basic sequencing and performance skills. ACT 2J requires an increased skill level shown by the additional number and types of obstacles to be performed.

As you can see there is now a variety of AKC agility competitions and there will likely be more added in the future.

UNDERSTANDING USDA DOG BREEDER LICENSING

AMERICAN

AKC GOVERNMENT RELATIONS
DOGLAW@AKC.ORG

Am I Subject to USDA Licensing for Dog Breeders?

The USDA retail pet store rule governs whether many individual dog breeders are subject to USDA licensing. Concerned dog breeders are asking: What does it mean for me?

Here is some information on the new regulations:

- If you have more than four “breeding females” and you sell pets sight unseen, you may be subject to USDA licensing and regulations. The and is important! Please also note that “breeding females” includes several species of pets—not just dogs.
- AKC remains concerned that the term “breeding female”—the foundation for a key part of the regulation—lacks a clear definition. This makes it difficult for breeders to determine whether they would be subject to licensing and regulation. A safe assumption is to consider a “breeding female” to be a female capable of reproduction.
- There are certain exemptions. You DO NOT have to be USDA licensed if ANY ONE of these exemptions applies:
 - If you maintain four or fewer “breeding females” on your premises, regardless of how you sell their offspring, you do not have to be USDA licensed.
 - If you always sell pets to new owners in face-to-face transactions, you do not have to be USDA licensed, no matter how many breeding females you have. “Face-to-face” means the buyer physically sees the animal prior to taking possession. Photos, videos, or a virtual meeting platform do not count as face-to-face.
 - If you breed and sell puppies for purposes other than as pets (for example, as breeding stock, hunting dogs, service dogs, or for the preservation of bloodlines), you may not have to be USDA licensed. This may be an option if you are heavily involved in breed-based activities or working to preserve a rare breed and are not marketing your dogs as pets.
 - However, this exemption may not apply if puppies/dogs are sold for these purposes AND as pets. Contact APHIS for more information on these exemptions.
- This is a federal rule that applies to all US breeders and pet sellers. It does not replace or eliminate any state, county, or local laws or regulations.

DOES THE USDA RULE AFFECT ME?

AM I SUBJECT TO USDA LICENSING FOR DOG BREEDERS?

The USDA Retail Pet Store rule exempts certain dog breeders from USDA licensing and identifies which breeders may be subject to USDA licensing. Answer the questions below to determine whether you meet the most common conditions requiring a USDA license.

Do you breed and sell dogs, cats, hamsters, other small mammals (or any combination of these) as pets?

If you are selling a dog solely as a breeding prospect, to maintain bloodlines, or for hunting, working, or security, you may be exempt. If you are selling the dog as a pet, you are likely not exempt. It is important that the seller be able to clearly demonstrate their intent in selling the dog at the time of sale. If you sell animals for a combination of purposes, contact USDA for more information.

YES

NO

Do you require all buyers to physically observe the animal before taking possession of it?

Face-to-face transactions are those in which the seller, buyer, and the animal available for sale are physically present so that every buyer may personally observe the animal prior to purchasing and/or taking possession of it. Buyers include certain agents/proxies. Sales may take place at any location agreed upon by the seller and the buyer.

NO

YES

Do you maintain more than four "breeding females" on your premises?

USDA has not defined "breeding female" in writing; this is currently determined on a case-by-case basis. "Breeding female" appears to mean female animals with the capacity to breed. Females that an APHIS inspector decides cannot breed due to age, infirmity, illness, or other issues are not included. All breeding females on a premises will be considered, regardless of ownership.

For informational purposes only. This is designed as a guide to the most common circumstances for breeders. Other exemptions and requirements exist. If you are uncertain about your status, contact USDA/APHIS to discuss your specific case.*

YES, YOU MAY NEED TO BE LICENSED BY THE USDA!

For more information, visit
<https://www.aphis.usda.gov/aphis/ourfocus/animalwelfare>

You may be EXEMPT from the new USDA/APHIS rule.

You are expected to remain knowledgeable of all applicable laws and regulations dealing with the keeping and maintenance of dogs, and to comply with them as required.
